October 2013 Newsletter

In John 8, we are told about a woman who was caught in the very act of adultery. She was brought to Jesus by the Pharisees who said the laws required her to be stoned to death. ~ What do you say? Twice Jesus stooped down and wrote on the ground with His finger. We don't know what He wrote, but whatever it was stopped their tongues from wagging. Then Jesus said to the woman, where are your accusers? She said there are none. Then Jesus said to her, "Neither do I condemn you, go and sin no more." She went away, saved and justified! What a story!!

Let me give you a modern day illustration of that story. A couple of weeks ago after the Wednesday night service at the Antioch Baptist Church in Oxford, Alabama, I went to eat at O'Charley's. It was Wednesday free pie day. I asked the waitress, a 24 year old young lady, if she wanted the pie. She said she would like it. Then she sat down and started talking with me. Her story was a familiar one. She got into a bad relationship, started drinking and using drugs and had a little girl out of wedlock. Then I asked her if she knew that if she were to die she would go to heaven. She said no. I then shared with her how to be saved. She said that she wanted to be saved. But then her boss told her she needed to get back to work. I paid my bill.

But she came to me and said she still wanted to trust Christ. I told her to meet me in the lobby. There I led her to Christ. She repeated the prayer after me and asked Christ into her heart. Then I told her the same thing Jesus told the woman in John 8. I told her since she was saved, she is not to let that man move back in with her in that old sinful lifestyle. I told her unless a man was willing to put a ring on her finger and go through a marriage ceremony, she was not to live with a man. She thanked me for telling her the truth.

I put my hand out to shake her hand, but instead she threw her arms around my neck, jumping up and down. I thought, I hope no one takes a picture of this and puts it on Facebook!! But Thank God, He is still saving souls!!

Terrific Thursdays

Terrific Thursday is a ministry that God has opened for Evangelist Don Whitt. The purpose of "Terrific Thursday" is to reach the unsaved, the unchurched and the dechurched people in your area. You know, people who may not attend a regular Church Service but would be open to attend a special night.

How many unsaved, unchurched and/or dechurched people are in your area? MANY! Terrific Thursday is designed to show people outside the Church that Christians have a good time together, enjoy their Christianity and reach them for the Lord.

Terrific Thursday can be the front door to reaching many people that you and your members have been lifting up in prayer - friends, relatives, associates and neighbors. Just think of the joy in the Church and in heaven when people get saved!

If you are interested in more information about "Terrific Thursday", phone Evangelist Don Whitt at 1-864-616-9547. Dates are open for October through the middle of November, 2013 and open dates in 2014.
